OHIO will send a solid Sherman delegation to the Chicago Convention next June.

THE first business of the Democratic caucus at Washington, it is said, will be to gag Ben. Hill.

THE harmonious action of the Ohio Republicans is held by Sherman's supporters to be a favorable omen.

COL. J. B. KILLEBREW will probably be Supervisor of the Census for the Nashville district.

GARCELON is probably the first executive officer who has asked the opinion of the Supreme Court on any question and then disregarded it.

THE editor of the Dispatch puts in most of his time running for Mayor, but for a change, stops occasionally to tell how great and good Garcelon is.

THE prospect is that Hon. N. G. Ordway will be appointed Governor of Utah as the successor of Governor Emery, the present incumbent. Secretary Evans favors him.

WE have not met an intelligent man who believes the bribery story that comes to us through Pillsbury, the Maine editor, who furnishes the brains and a large share of the rascality for the Maine steal. If there was bribery, why were the names not given? Too thin.

IF the Supreme Court should decide that Savage and Wilson can not appear in the new issue cases, we suggest that Gov. Marks send for Garcelon. He rises above and bide defiance to the Supreme Court. And if he can do that in a small matter like a State election, there ought to be no question about his taking "the bull by the horns" when the State is about to be deprived of eminent counsel like Savage and Wilson.

SPEAKING of Garcelon's disregard of the Supreme Court decision, the Cincinnati Commercial says:

THE result has been not only to make clear to the people of Maine and the country the extent of the usurpation of power by the Governor and Council, but the absurdity of the technicalities upon which they based their official action. They stand condemned before the law of the State and the opinion of the highest judicial tribunal, and whether they yield or persist in their conduct, they are under a popular judgment that will sink them into political infamy.

IN speaking of the "leaks" in connection with the County Court yesterday, we had reference to no particular individual, and especially none to our worthy and efficient Trustee, W. H. Swan, Esq. His fidelity to the trust reposed in him, none will doubt. One reason why county warrants are at a discount, is the action of the Legislature, postponing the time for the payment of taxes. Another is, the rate of taxation is doubtless too low. And still another is, the expenses of the county are too high in some particulars.

FUNERAL OF BISHOP HAYEN.

BOSTON, Jan. 6.—The funeral of Bishop Haven took place to-day. After a short service at the late residence, his remains were taken to Pleasant M. E. Church. Nearly every minister of the Methodist denomination in New England was present, besides many from different sections of the country. The decorations of the church were elaborate, and the floral contributions unusually fine. Bishop Foster read the burial service, offered prayer, and delivered an address on the life and services of the deceased.

Assaulted Robber at Cleveland.

Tuesday night last, at about 8:30 o'clock, while coming from the express office to the Ochoe House, Mr. P. Layne was knocked down by unknown parties on one of the most prominent streets in town. The place of the occurrence was on Luman street, in front of Mrs. Luman's residence. He (Layne) was alone, a negro or a white man blacked. They struck him on the back of the head, badly bruising, but not fracturing the skull. When first struck, he gave an alarm, and, as a great many were on the street, the person that hit him made his escape through the alley leading to the 6th ward. Robbery could have been their only aim, as Mr. Layne, we don't suppose, has a personal enemy on earth. It is thought that the would-be assassin supposed, as Mr. Layne was Express Agent, he would carry money with him to his hotel. Mr. Layne is resting as easy as could be expected at this time.—Herald.

Kingsmen Municipal Election.

At a municipal election in Kingston last Saturday, as we learn from East Tennesseean, the following Board of Aldermen was elected: C. B. French, A. J. Childress, J. C. Rowe, J. C. Brown, W. A. Ferguson, Jno. E. Sturges, C. V. Wilkey. The board organized by re-electing C. B. French, Mayor; J. Childress, Recorder; John Williams, Marshal; Mark Williams, Assistant.

XLVI CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8.—Mr. Wallace presented the petition of Drexel & Co., and others of Pennsylvania, for the withdrawal of the legal tender quality of treasury notes. In doing so, he desired to say that the gentlemen signing the petition represented the leading commercial, banking and shipping interests of Pennsylvania, and their opinions on the subject were entitled to attention by the Senate. The Sergeant-at-Arms brought to the bar of the Senate L. T. Smith, Levi Wilson and E. B. Parcell, to answer the charge of contempt in not obeying the summons to testify in the Ingalls case.

Mr. Smith made a statement to the effect that he sent the telegram to the committee, he knew nothing about the election of Mr. Ingalls.

A discussion took place as to accepting the witness's explanation. Mr. Saulsbury, Chairman of the committee, was in favor of discharging the witness upon his appearing before the committee and testifying.

Mr. McMillan and others objected to keeping the witness in custody, claiming that no lawful summons had been served on him.

After a long discussion of the case of Smith and other recalcitrant witnesses in the Ingalls case, they were discharged from custody.

Mr. Jones, of Louisiana, presented a petition of ship owners asking for an amendment of the law relative to the forfeiture of vessels to the violation of the revenue laws.

Mr. Jones, of Louisiana, introduced a bill to repeal the 22d section of the act to incorporate the Texas Pacific Railroad Company to aid in the construction of its road and for other purposes, and also to declare the rights, privileges and lands granted in said section to the New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg Railroad to be forfeited, and to re-enact said section in favor of the New Orleans Pacific Railroad Company. Referred.

At 2:10 the Senate went into executive session, and when the doors were re-opened, adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8.—A resolution has been adopted, directing the Committee on Appropriations to inquire into the causes and extent of the probable deficiencies in the postal star service for the fiscal years of 1879 and 1880.

The committee are now being called for reports. The Committee on Appropriations discussed at some length this morning the request of the Post-office Department for an appropriation of two million dollars to cover the increased expenses of the star service, and decided to report at once to the House a resolution authorizing a committee to institute an investigation of the entire matter.

The subject of pay of United States Marshals was referred to the sub-committee on Deficiencies, of which Representative McMahon is Chairman, with instruction to prepare a bill.

The Army and Indian Appropriation bills were also discussed, and sub-committees authorized to prepare and report them to the full committee as soon as possible.

It is believed that both will be reported to the House within a week. At 4:40 p. m. the House went into a Committee of the Whole on the report of the Committee on Rules. Mr. Reagan, of Texas, spoke in opposition to the proposed rule, which provides that the Committee on Commerce shall report the River and Harbor bill merely for reference to the Appropriations Committee. He thought that the latter committee, burdened as it already is, could not give the subject proper consideration. He objected to the plan of making one committee merely clerk or amanuensis for another, and declared that the Commerce Committee had always acted upon the River and Harbor bill with faithfulness and efficiency. After some further discussion, in which Mr. Garfield, and Mr. Hooke, of Mississippi, participated, Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, disclaimed, on behalf of the Committee on Rules, any intention of abridging the power of any House committee, or of saying a word derogatory to any committee, but the River and Harbor bill had steadily grown, year by year, from $2,000,000 to $8,000,000, and he thought it time that the House be warned that the bill should have fuller consideration and be less excessive.

Further discussion ensued, ending in an animated personal debate between Messrs. Randall and O'Neill, of Pennsylvania, which was the occasion of much laughter and confusion but which had little to do with the subject.

Pending the discussion the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

MAINE.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 8.—Both branches of the Legislature assembled quietly at 10 a. m. in the presence of a much smaller number of spectators than yesterday. In the Senate, Senator Hobson offered a resolution for the appointment of a joint committee of both Houses, to investigate the charges of attempted bribery of members of the Legislature since the receipt by them of their certificates. The resolution was opposed by the Republican Senators, on the ground that no bribery of Senators had been charged. If members of the House had been bribed, the investigation should begin there. The resolution, however, was adopted. No other business of importance was transacted.

In the House the records of yesterday were read and revealed the fact that none of the officers voted for had more than 72 votes. Mr. Hale announced the presence of sixty Republicans with certificates, who were ready to be qualified. Acting Governor Lawson refused to qualify them at present, as he did not know the extent of his powers in that direction, but said he would inform himself. The House then quietly adjourned.

The Republican members will probably be qualified to-morrow. Mr. Sproul, of Vassie, who is among the number, will act with the Republicans, thus giving the latter a majority in the popular branch, should the members from the five cities be admitted.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The Senate, in executive session, confirmed the nomination of J. D. Wilson as Postmaster at Murfreesboro, Tennessee.

John B. Hussey, of North Carolina, has been appointed Librarian of the House of Representatives.

The President sent to the Senate to-day the nomination of Wm. H. Parrier as Receiver of Public Money at Huntsville, Ala.

The National Greenback Labor party conference met here to-day with 125 delegates from 28 States in attendance. Hon. T. H. March, Greenback Congressman from Maine, was elected Permanent Chairman, and a committee appointed to report upon the time and place for the National Convention to meet to nominate a candidate for President.

THE INDIANS.

PUEBLO, Col., Jan. 8.—With twelve Utes in charge, Lieutenant Taylor and ten men arrived here yesterday, and immediately proceeded east. Between two and three thousand people congregated at the depot, and "hang the red devils," "shoot the murdering fiends," and like expressions, were frequently heard from the crowd, and the Indians were pelted with coal by the boys, who boarded the coal train on the side track. The savages were terror-stricken and completely cowed. A move was on foot in the morning to organize five thousand men and lynch them, but cooler counsels prevailed, and the citizens determined to let the Indians pass without injury. Had there been any injudicious action taken by the troops or miners no power could have restrained the mob from lynching them. Had Douglass or any of the Indians engaged in the murder of Meeker, or in outraging the Meeker family, been on board a rope would have come into play. Lieut. Taylor, in an interview, expressed himself determined to protect the Indians at all hazards should a mob attempt to seize them.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8.—J. B. Mannix, assignee of Archbishop Purcell, yesterday filed in the Probate Court a schedule of real estate which he claimed to be liable to sale for benefit of the creditors of the Archbishop. The schedule covers all the property of the Catholic Church in the city, the Cathedral, Church and Parochial school buildings and lots, the property to be appraised, but now estimated to be over a million and a-half. The attempt to make this property assets for the creditors will be bitterly construed. A meeting of the creditors will be held to-day to decide on the proposed appointment of E. S. Trop as attorney for the Bank creditors in place of Mannix.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Jan. 8.—The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia has affirmed the judgment of the Hustings Court, in this city, in the case of John E. Poindexter, convicted some months since for the killing of Chas. C. Curtis on the 3d of March last. Poindexter was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for voluntary manslaughter.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 8.—A collision occurred last night near Martinsburg, West Virginia, between two freight trains, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The particulars are not known here yet, except that a number of cars were thrown off the track.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Jan. 8.—The miners in four mines, near Dover, Morris county, have struck for an advance from $1.25 to $1.50 per day. The strike began in Baker Mine, and it is thought that it will be general. At the mines orders for ore are largely in excess of the amount mined, and it is expected that the men will get the desired advance. No violence is apprehended.

FOREIGN NEWS.

DUBLIN, Jan. 8.—The Irish Times says that the Government is determined to use £25,000 of the Church surplus, as a fund to be loaned at an exceptional low rate of interest, to landlords and local bodies, for expenditures in the construction of public works, in order to provide labor for unskilled workmen. The loan is to be repaid in thirty-five years.

School Exhibition at Caledonia.

GRAVESTON, Jan. 8, 1880. MR. EDITOR: I had the pleasure of attending Mr. J. W. Saylor's exhibition at Caledonia, in the 16th district of Knox county, on the 19th of December, 1879.

At 6:30 o'clock the spacious church was crowded to its utmost capacity, and by 7 o'clock were entirely filled, many having to stand upon their feet to obtain room in the house at all. The exercises were opened by Rev. T. P. Rutherford. The intelligent remarks by the Professor upon the object of his exhibition, and the importance of good order on such occasions, were not only eloquent, but exactly to the point.

We would have been pleased to have passed a special compliment upon each individual who performed so intelligently upon the stage, but for the sake of brevity we will only mention a few of the many notable ones.

Of declamations, there was quite a long list. The first declamation, by J. W. Sherrod, subject, "Mount Taylor," was delivered in a clear and forcible manner, which clearly presented the great contrast of Christ and Napoleon upon that Mount. Second, J. S. Bell, subject, "Address to Bunker Hill." The speaker disclosed some marks of future oratory, or at least thorough drill. Third, a declamation, "The Confession of Miller," was well committed and carried out to perfection. "Our indebtedness to the Greeks," by J. A. Monday, and "A Eulogy on Daniel Webster," by C. W. Dunford, were delivered in an intelligent manner. We would say to the young men, persevere. Next, a composition by Miss Anna Ault, subject, "The Future," was highly appreciated by the whole audience for the good style and scientific manner in which it was composed.

Miss Jennie Blake, subject, "Too Many Beasts," was very appropriate, and read exceedingly well. Many admired her as the belle of the evening. Miss Maggie Blake, subject, "Courage," Miss Mary Blake, subject, "The Prize of Life," Miss Lizette Plummer, subject, "Evening Prayer Away," were read in a clear and distinct manner. They were quite eloquent, and did great honor to themselves and teacher. The best essay was read by Anna Dunford, subject, "The Battle of Life," and was indeed excellent. The eyes of the school were moistened with tears when she spoke of the happy hours they had spent together in school, which was so soon to be remembered only as something of the past.

The exercises then being over, the teacher appeared upon the stand, and in a very able and logical manner discussed the true principles of education, and the elements of success in the educational world, which was well received by the audience.

Mr. Saylor has fine talents as a good educator, and justly deserves the high respect he receives from all who know him.

Washington County Fair.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Washington County Agricultural and Mechanical Society, held in the court house in Jonesboro, on Monday, January 5th, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—A. B. Bowman. Vice Presidents—J. Ketcher, Henry Ross, Jr., and B. M. May. Secretary—J. D. Sloan. Treasurer—M. S. Mahoney.

New Directors—G. W. St. John, W. G. Mathes and A. S. N. Dobson. The Treasurer's report was very encouraging, showing a balance in the treasury of $125. The report of the committee on the exhibition of 1879 will excel any former exhibition ever held.

Immediately on the adjournment of the Society, the Board of Directors, consisting of John F. Smith, T. H. Reeves, J. C. Smith, James M. Brown, James E. Deakins, B. H. Dungan, W. S. Mathes, A. S. N. Dobson, G. W. St. John, was held and the following business transacted:

Col. T. H. Reeves was re-elected Chairman. The Treasurer's bond was fixed at $2,000.

The time for the next annual exhibition was fixed for three days, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 29th, 30th and October 1st.

The Mule Trade.

Good mules have been in great demand lately. Several parties have been buying for weeks and shipping South. Mr. T. T. H. Dungan, of that last week there was taken from his stable 71 head of mules and 21 head of cattle, making about $6,000 paid out in this county that week. Parties are still buying this week. Good mules bring on an average $80.—Cleveland Herald.

No More Hard Times.

If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive, quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in that simple, pure remedy, Hop Bitters; that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health.
